In Memory of Jacob L. Caskey

The Jacob L. Caskey Activity Building, built in 1966, was named in honor of Jacob Caskey, teacher, coach and athletic director from 1931 to 1969.

When Mr. Caskey first came to the Indiana School for the Deaf in 1931, the only sport on campus was basketball. Under his guidance, ISD athletics grew to include a variety of sports for both boys and girls. Mr. Caskey coached four basketball championship teams at ISD: the 1933 and 1934 junior high state champions, and the 1935 and 1940 national deaf school champions.

In his college years at Butler, Mr. Caskey was a member of the 1928 and 1929 national basketball champions. He was inducted into the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame in 1974.
